

FOREIGN CLAIMS SETTLEMENT COMMISSION
OF THE UNITED STATES
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20579

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

SADYE WEISS

Claim No. CU-8804

Decision No. CU-3167

Under the International Claims Settlement
Act of 1949, as amended

Counsel for claimant:

Brodsky, Linett and Altman
By Alvin Altman, Esq.

PROPOSED DECISION

Claimant, SADYE WEISS, who owned First Mortgage bonds issued by the Cuba Railroad Company, asserts a claim under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, against the Government of Cuba because of its nationalization of said Company.

In our decision entitled the Claim of Joseph Gans (Claim No. CU-1720 which we incorporate herein by reference), we held that the properties of the Railroad were nationalized or otherwise taken by the Government of Cuba on October 13, 1960, and that this type of claim is compensable to an American national under the facts and conditions set forth therein. We need not again detail here the reasons or the method used in determining the value per $1,000 bond of $492.86 including interest to October 13, 1960.

On the basis of evidence in the record in the instant case, the Commission finds that this claimant comes within the terms of the Gans decision; that she and her predecessor Samuel Weiss were American nationals at the requisite times; that they had been the joint owners of five First Mortgage bonds issued by the Cuba Railroad Company since prior to October 13, 1960; and that she succeeded to and suffered a loss in the amount of $2,464.30 within the meaning of Title V of the Act. Further, the Commission finds that the amount of loss sustained shall be increased by interest thereon at the rate of 6% per annum from October 13, 1960, the date of loss, to the date on which provisions are made for the settlement thereof. (See Gans, supra.)

CERTIFICATION OF LOSS

The Commission certifies that SADYE WEISS succeeded to and suffered a loss, as a result of actions of the Government of Cuba, within the scope of Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, in the amount of Two Thousand Four Hundred Sixty-Four Dollars and Thirty Cents ($2,464.30) with interest at 6% per annum from October 13, 1960 to the date of settlement.

The statute does not provide for the payment of claims against the Government of Cuba. Provision is only made for the determination by the Commission of the validity and amounts of such claims. Section 501 of the statute specifically precludes any authorization for appropriations for payment of these claims. The Commission is required to certify its findings to the Secretary of State for possible use in future negotiations with the Government of Cuba.
